The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 29. to Thursday July 31. 1712.

Windsor, July 28.

THE following Addreſs from the County of Salop, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Lloyd, Eſq; one of the Knights of the Shire, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Salop.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders of the County of Salop, at the General Quarter Seſſions holden at Shrewsbury the Fifteenth of July, 1712.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being truly Senſible of Your Majeſty's moſt earneſt Endeavours (in Eaſe of Your People) to bring this tedious and expenſive War to a glorious and ſpeedy Concluſion, do, with moſt joyful and thankful Hearts, Congratulate and Acknowledge Your great Goodneſs and Prudence, in giving us (at this Juncture) ſo near a Proſpect of a long-wiſh'd-for Peace, the Terms whereof we conceive Honourable to Great Britain, and juſt to Your Allies.

By this our Trade and Commerce will advance and improve both at Home and Abroad, and we ſhall be ſecure thereof, whilſt Dunkirk is Garriſon'd by Your Majeſty's Forces, and France obliged to quit that important and impregnable Fortreſs, as the neareſt Recompence and Equivalent we can expect, for all that immenſe and unequal Share of Blood and Treaſure we have ſuſtain'd during this long and expenſive War.

And herein we want Words to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of all ſuch Practices as have been made uſe of, by a reſtleſs, turbulent, and factious Party, whoſe ſordid Avarice, and boundleſs Ambition, prompts them to other Ends than are conſiſtent with the Welfare of their native Country, and makes them join with our Rival Traders, and ſecret Enemies, to obſtruct Your Majeſty's preſent Negotiations and Purpoſes; for which we have ſo long contended under the greateſt Difficulties: And it is ſtill (Madam) our firm Reſolutions to offer our ſelves, and thoſe Fortunes of ours (which Your Majeſty is ſo ſolicitous to Protect and Preſerve) to the utmoſt Hazards in Defence of Your Sacred Perſon and Prerogative, our preſent Conſtitution both in Church and State, and entire Security of the Proteſtant Religion, by fixing the Succeſſion in the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

May Your Majeſty long Govern Your Kingdoms in Peace, Plenty and Proſperity: May You always (as now) be attended with a Wiſe and Faithful Council, and an Obedient and Loyal Parliament, to whoſe united Conſultations and Advices (next under the Divine Providence) we owe all the bleſſed Effects of our late ſeaſonable Relief, and the Proſpect of farther Glory, Happineſs and Tranquility to theſe Nations.

The following Addreſs from the County of Derby, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Michael Hurton, Eſq; Chairman, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Rt. Honourable the Earl of Scarſdale, Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Derby, at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid County at Bakewell, on the 15th of July, 1712.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

PErmit us, amongſt the reſt of Your Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, who at this time preſume to approach Your Royal Throne, to Congratulate Your Majeſty and Your Kingdoms, upon the near proſpect of an honourable and advantageous Peace; and to return Your Majeſty our moſt humble and hearty Thanks for Your unparalleled Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms upon which it may be made; the concluding and commencing of Peace and War, being the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown.

Peace is that great comprehenſive Enjoyment upon which all others are dependant, being the higheſt Bleſſing to a Nation, and indiſpenſably requiſite to the enjoying any other Good; and the more to be deſired by Your People, who have ſo long labour'd under their heavy and unequal Burthen in a Bloody and expenſive War.

Your Majeſty's Care and Zeal for the Welfare of Your People, and Ballance of Europe, in the Commencement of this War, were worthy Your Illuſtrious Self: But Your Wiſdom and Chriſtian Temper are more eminently Conſpicuous, by putting a ſtop to the Current of Your Victories, and giving a Ballance to the Powers Abroad, Honour to Your Self, and Peace and Proſperity to Your People.

A Peace ſo juſt and Honourable, ſo comprehenſive and effective of thoſe Ends for which the War was commenced (the Nature and Terms thereof being ſuch as ſecure and execute themſelves) whereby our moſt Primitive Apoſtolical Religion will be ſecured to us and our Poſterity under a Proteſtant Succeſſion; our Trade and Commerce ſecured, extended and improved in all its Branches, beyond whatever Britain could have hoped for, the Ballance of Power in Europe effectually ſecured, and ample Satisfaction offered to all Your Allies, that we can never ſufficiently applaud Your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom and Care, nor ſufficiently honour and value the Integrity and Stability of Your faithful and able Miniſtry, in conducting and carrying on ſo great, ſo good a Work.

Neither can we forbear to expreſs our utter Abhorrance and Deteſtation of thoſe ungrateful factious Perſons (that delight in War) who under ſpecious Pretences, and to carry on Deſigns of their own, have dared to obſtruct the juſt and honourable Meaſures of their Sovereign.

May Your Majeſty proceed ſpeedily and effectually to finiſh this great Affair, ſo Glorious and Honourable rable to Your Majesty above all Your former Laurels obtained by War, so Happy and Beneficial to Your People, and all Your Allies.

That the God of Wisdom and Peace may preside over Your Majesty and Your Counsels, that he would give Your Majesty length of Days in one Hand, and Riches and Honour in the other; and long permit You to enjoy the Blessings of that Glorious and Happy Peace You, His Vicegerent, shall give to Your People; and in his own due time, in exchange for Your Terrestial Crown, reward You with an eternal Weight of Glory in Heaven, are the sincere and devout Prayers of Your Majesty's most Loyal, most Obedient, and most Dutiful Subjects.

The following Address from the County of Somerset, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir William Wyndham, Sir Jacob Banks, and Edward Phelips, Esq; being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer, and the Right Honourable the Earl Poulet, Lord-Steward of Her Majesty's Household.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, &c. Assembled at a General Quarter Sessions held at Bridgwater, in and for Your County of Somerset, on the 15th Instant.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Blessings of Your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign, confirm Your Subjects in their Duty and Loyalty, by the most pleasing ties of Gratitude and Affection; the preservation of the Liberties of Europe; the adjusting and determining the different Interests, and ballancing the Powers thereof, are Actions worthy Your Majesty's Grandeur and Wisdom; but Your happy People have Obligations of an higher Nature to Your Majesty, who from the more immediate influence of Your Goodness, find their most excellent Constitution and Protestant Succession as by Law Established, preserved to them; the unequal Proportion they have born in this Destructive War, in some measure recompenced by a due Preference of their Interest and Welfare in the approaching Peace, and these Blessings thereby firmly and prudently secured to them and their Posterity. So full is Your Subjects Joy on this happy Occasion, that nothing but Your Majesty's Gracious Condescension, in communicating these welcome Tidings can add thereto, and as we admire Your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, in compassing this great and difficult Work, permit us to express our abhorrence of those Persons and Practices, who endeavour to obstruct the same, Persons who have long forgot their Native Country, and abandon'd its Interest; who not content with the Spoils they have themselves made, lay their greatest Stress of Complaint on that Distinction which Your Majesty is pleased to insist on for Britain; but we doubt not by Gods Blessing on Your Majesty's Endeavours, assisted by Your present Able and Active Ministry, supported by Your Loyal, Honest and truly British Parliament, to see this insolent Faction suppressed, and all Your Enemies, both at Home and Abroad, Cloathed with Shame and Confusion. And we humbly crave Leave to congratulate (even to our Surprize) Your Majesty's happy and easy Possession of that most important Port and Forts of Dunkirk, which is a Place of more Consequence to the Trade of Great Britain, than all the other strong Towns and Castles in the Spanish Low Countries, that have cost so much Blood and Treasure. That Your Sacred Majesty may long live to Rule and Reign over us in Peace and Prosperity, are the hearty Prayers of Your most obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the County of Stafford, was presented to Her Majesty by William Ward, and Charles Bagot, Esqrs, Knights of the Shire, and Henry Vernon Esq; Chairman of the Quarter-Sessions, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Burton.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Deputy Lieutenants, Grand Jury, Clergy, and Gentlemen, at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held for the County of Stafford, the 15th of July, 1712.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

THE peculiar Advantages of Your Subjects, under the happy influences of Your Majesty's Government, have given them frequent opportunities of paying that pleasant Tribute of their Duty, the return of their thanks for the many Gracious Dispensations of it.

We have often, with great Satisfaction, Congratulated Your Majesty upon the Successes of Your Arms, and the signal Victories thereby obtained, when You saw fit to exert Your Endeavours for the Establishing a due Ballance of Power on this side the World, for which End you chiefly entred upon the present War; and we now beg Leave to do it with greater Joy, on the near prospect You are pleas'd to give us of an Honourable Peace, so grateful to all Your faithful Subjects, after the expence of so much Blood and Treasure in the acquisition of it.

As the Power of making Peace and War is Your Majesty's undoubted Prerogative, so have we all along been satisfied in an entire dependance on Your Goodness and Wisdom; that You would continue the one no longer than the good Ends which engaged You in it might be obtained, nor defer the Conclusion of the other, when it was in Your power to effect it, in such a manner as might consist with the Interests of Your own People, and not only the Security but Advantage of Your Allies; and the great Condescension wherewith You have vouchsafed to lay before Your Parliament the Conditions on which a Peace may now be had, calls for the utmost degree of our Gratitude, and the strongest Testimonies of our Duty.

We are sensible how extraordinary and amazing the Difficulties have been which you have met with in this truly Christian Undertaking; but we are perswaded those Efforts whereby Your Designs have been opposed, are but the convulsive Struggles of an expiring Faction, who under specious Pretences, are carrying on Designs they dare not own; and envy Your Majesty, and Your present Council, the Glory of so Great a Work; seeming to have nothing less in view, than their Duty to their Prince, the quiet of their fellow Subjects, and the real good of their own Country.

Your Majesty's repeated Declarations from the Throne, leave no room for any one to doubt but the Protestant Succession is as much at Your Heart, as the welfare of Your People.

We humbly take leave on this Occasion to express our Satisfaction in what we esteem the greatest Happiness of all Your good Subjects, that Your Majesty is now attended by Persons whose Counsels have agreed, and we doubt not always will agree with Your own most gracious disposition; and we therefore cannot fear but Your Majesty (by the Blessing of God) will be able to finish what You have so Gloriously begun, notwithstanding all the Artful Contrivances of those that delight in War.

The following Address from the County of Devon, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulett Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Household, and Lord Lieutenant, and Custos Rotulorum of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentle-

Gentlemen of the County of Devon, at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace held for the said County, at the Caſtle of Exon, the 15th of July, 1712.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

THE conſtant Concern which your moſt Sacred Majeſty has always ſhewn for the Peace and Welfare of Your Kingdoms; and particularly in the Overtures of Peace, which from the great Goodneſs and Condeſcenſion of Your Majeſty, were lately communicated to Your Parliament; The great Difficulties which You Majeſty hath ſtruggled with in the procurement thereof, and the Proviſion made by Your Majeſty therein, for the Succeſſion of the Houſe of Hannover, the benefit of Commerce, and the preſervation of the Ballance of Power in Europe, are ſuch Evidences of Your Princely Care and Kindneſs to us, as we cannot but applaud Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs in the Management of this Important Affair, as well as in Your Majeſty's Choice of ſo Able and Faithful a Miniſtry to Serve You therein.

And we think our ſelves under the greateſt obligations of Duty and Thankfulneſs, ſince Your Majeſty will hereby put at end to a long and deſtructive War, which however requiſite in its commencement, yet if continued on the foot it was, or upheld longer than the occaſion, muſt have tended to the apparent prejudice of Your own Kingdoms, and the enriching ſuch of Your Allies, who are ſo well provided for by the Terms which Your Majeſty hath procured for them, as will render the Peace diſhonourable to none but thoſe who ſhall refuſe to accept thereof.

Accept, then Great Princeſs, of this our humble and thankful Addreſs for the Negotiations of Peace which by Your Majeſty's Pious Endeavours, are already ſo far advanced, and which by the late Surrender of Your Ancient and Important Fortreſs of Dunkirk, are ſo well ſecured. And we beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall always hereafter thankfully and readily acquieſce in whatſoever Meaſures Your Majeſty, in Your Great Wiſdom and Juſtice, ſhall think moſt proper for the accompliſhment of this Great Work; and will conſtantly ſtand by and defend Your Majeſty, to the utmoſt of our Powers, againſt all thoſe, who out of Faction or Intereſt, ſhall oppoſe Your Majeſty in the proſecution thereof.

And may the God of Peace always bleſs your Majeſty with a long and peaceable Reign over us; and may your Majeſty always hereafter enjoy the Fruits of Peace, to the mutual Happineſs and Satisfaction of your Majeſty, and all your Dutiful and Loving Subjects; and to the great Mortification, and Diſappointment of all ſuch, either at Home or Abroad, as are Enemies to Peace.

The following Addreſs from the County of Glamorgan, was ſent up by their Repreſentative in Parliament, and preſented by my Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Glamorgan.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg leave to expreſs the deep Senſe we have of Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in endeavouring to put a ſpeedy End to ſo fatal a War. If any thing can add to the Bleſſing of Peace, 'tis the gracious manner in which You have been pleaſed to communicate to us the Conditions on which it may be obtained.

Since the whole World is convinc'd that the Chiefeſt of Your Allies no longer Fight for the Security of their own Territories, but to acquire a new Dominion, and render themſelves formidable even to thoſe by whoſe Blood and Treaſure they have in different Ages been preſerv'd from Ruin.

We cannot doubt but Your Majeſty, in Your tender Care for your own People, will fruſtrate thoſe unreaſonable Views, and that due Conſideration will be had of the unequal Burthen we have laid, not only on our ſelves, but our lateſt Poſterity.

'Tis with Grief we are obliged to mention, that a Set of Men are of late ſprung up amongſt us, who having no Affection for their Native Country, by whoſe Spoils they are become Conſiderable, would Sacrifice its Honour and Intereſt to Foreigners. But we truſt Your Majeſty will ſteadily purſue the Advantage of Your own Kingdoms, in ſpight of Factious Spirits at Home, and falſe Friends, as well as open Enemies Abroad.

The following Addreſs from the County of Brecon, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Edward Williams, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Brecon, aſſembled at their General Seſſions of the Peace holden for the ſaid County at Brecon, on July the 15th, 1712.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty!

THE Policy and Conduct whereby Your People are delivered from the Miſeries and Calamities of ſo tedious, dreadful and expenſive a War Abroad, and from the dark Contrivances, and helliſh Deſigns of factious Enemies of our Peace at Home, do evidently demonſtrate to the World, Your Majeſty's extraordinary Sagacity and Wiſdom in the Choice of Your Miniſtry, as alſo their great Abilities and Fidelity in the diſcharge of ſo weighty a Truſt repoſed in them. Your Majeſty's great Condeſcenſion in communicating the Terms of Peace, we moſt humbly acknowledge; and as the Bleſſings of Peace are unvaluable, we beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of the moſt grateful returns of Duty and Loyalty, that can be made by a faithful and obedient People. The preſervation and encouragement of Trade, being of the higheſt importance to theſe Nations, we cannot but admire Your Majeſty's Prudence and Care of us, not only in obtaining the ſtrongeſt Fortreſſes and ſafeſt Harbours, to ſecure all the ancient Branches of it, but in enlarging and carrying it on for the further Conſumption of our Manufactures, to the utmoſt limits of the Weſtern World. Nor is Your Majeſty leſs vigilant, with reſpect to the Intereſts of the other Princes and States concerned with Your Majeſty in this War; for, notwithſtanding their undecent Behaviour, Your Majeſty's Goodneſs does ſtill perſiſt to procure them reaſonable Terms, and ſufficient Barriers for Security of their Dominions, and ſo overcome Evil with Good. May the Author of Peace and Lover of Concord, give Succeſs to Your glorious Deſigns to terminate this bloody War, by eſtabliſhing a happy and a laſting Peace: May he prolong your Days to the utmoſt Period, to preſerve it to Your People, that they may long enjoy the bleſſed Effects of it; Bleſſings that will ſoon put to ſilence the Gainſayings of a fooliſh, factious and malicious People.

The following Addreſs from the County of Cornwall, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Lanſdowne, Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, in the Abſence of Sir Richard Vyvyan, Bart. and John Trevannion, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of Cornwall, Aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions at Truro, on the 15th of July, 1712.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects of Your ever Loyal County of Cornwall, do rejoice to ſee Your juſt Prerogative ſo univerſally and ſo cheerfully acknowledged by Your People.

We do not preſume to adviſe or inſtruct Your Majeſty, but we heartily join with our Fellow-Subjects, in Expreſſions of Thankfulneſs for Your Condeſcenſion in communicating to Your Parliament, the Terms on which a General Peace may be made.

Your Majeſty is already Glorious beyond the moſt Glorious of Your Predeceſſors; but Your Tenderneſs of Your own People, Your Care of, and Kindneſs to Your Allies, (even the moſt ungrateful and undeſerving of them) Your Securing the Succeſſion to the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, and Your preſerving the Church, will ſound more to Your Honour, than the Towns You have taken, the Countries You have Conquered, or the Battels Your Generals have won.

We are tranſported at that View of Happineſs, which begins to diſcover it ſelf to Great Britain, by Your Majeſty's being in Poſſeſſion of Dunkirk, and cannot ſufficiently admire Your Majeſty's Wiſdom in ſurmounting ſo many Difficulties, occaſioned by reſtleſs Faction at Home, and malicious Repreſentations Abroad.

May all Your Majeſty's Deſigns for the Peace of Europe be attended with Succeſs, and may You long live to govern an obedient People.

The following Addreſs from the Town of Derby, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Edward Mundy, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Scarſdale, Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Derby.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the loyal Gentry, Clergy, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Town of Derby.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit us, with the profoundeſt Humility to approach Your Royal Throne, to join with the reſt of Your loyal Subjects, in acknowledging Your Majeſty's unparallel'd Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made; ſuch Terms as do plainly evince to the World, the great Care Your Majeſty has taken to make uſe of that wonderful Series of Succeſs, with which the Lord of Hoſt has been pleaſed to reward Your extraordinary Piety, (ever ſince he placed Your Majeſty upon the Throne of Your Anceſtors) to procure to Your Majeſty and Allies, all the Security and Advantages that (we humbly preſume) were at firſt propoſed by the War; by diſmembring ſo many and large Dominions from Spain, and preventing what remains from being ever united to France, thereby effectually eſtabliſhing a real Balance of Power in Europe; by procuring for Your Allies, that are contiguous to France, ſufficient Barriers againſt any future Encroachments that may hereafter be attempted by that Crown againſt them; by procuring to Your Majeſty's other Allies, all juſt and reaſonable Satisfaction; and by ſecuring and enlarging the Trade, as well as the Dominions, of Your own Kingdoms. And though we cannot think of a Succeſſor to Your Majeſty, without the deepeſt Sorrow, yet we ſhould think our ſelves wanting in our Duty, if we ſhould not return our moſt humble Thanks to Your Majeſty, for obliging France to acknowledge, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, the Act of Succeſſion to theſe Kingdoms, (after God Almighty, to reward Your Majeſty's Vertues and to puniſh us for our Sins, ſhall call You from this Temporal to an Eternal Crown) whereby the wicked Deſigns of the pretended Friends and declared Enemies of our Religion and Monarchy will be happily eluded, and both be convey'd down to our lateſt Poſterity.

Theſe Bleſſings, which, by the Aſſiſtance of God Almighty, Your Majeſty is endeavouring to procure for us, call for the higheſt Acknowledgments from a Dutiful and Loyal People; and conſequently our abhorrence and deteſtation of the wicked Artifices of a malicious, ungrateful Faction, who endeavour to obſtruct a Peace ſo Glorious and Advantageous to Your Majeſty and all Your Allies, that they may, amidſt the Confuſion of War, more ſecurely carry on Deſigns that they dare not own. We further humbly preſume to declare, that it was with the greateſt Pleaſure imaginable we obſerved, the tenderneſs and compaſſion Your Majeſty was pleaſed to expreſs, for the unequal burden of Expences Your Subjects hath lain under, during the whole Courſe of this War, which alone is more than a Recompence for thoſe Expences: But when we conſider the prodigious Advantages that will accrue to all parts of Your Dominions, by the Offers of Peace which France has been obliged to make to Your Majeſty, we look upon thoſe Expences as Money laid out, even for the Advantage as well as Security of us and our Poſterity; ſo that this long and chargeable War, which (not long ſince) we apprehended would have been the Impoveriſhing, will, by Your Majeſty's great Care, prove the enriching of all Your Kingdoms. May the God of Peace, who has induced Your Royal Mind to procure the choiceſt of his Bleſſings to Europe, enable Your Majeſty to perfect the Glorious Undertaking, notwithſtanding the artful Contrivances of the Enemies to Peace, both at Home and Abroad. And, as a Reward for Your Pious Endeavours, May he grant to Your Majeſty a long Life (eſſential to the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms;) may he continue to Your Majeſty a Wiſe and Faithful Miniſtry; and may Your Majeſty be (as now) always happy in a loyal Parliament, and a grateful and obedient People.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Bodmyn, in the County of Cornwall, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable Ruſſel Robarts, Eſq; One of Her Majeſty's Tellers of the Exchequer, and one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Corporation of Bodmyn, in the County of Cornwall.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of this Your antient Corporation, humbly beg leave to approach Your Sacred Perſon with our moſt humble and hearty Thanks to Your Majeſty, for Your great Goodneſs and Condeſcenſion in communinating to Your Parliament ſuch advantageous Terms of Peace as France hath at laſt been forced to offer.

The proſpect of this very glorious Peace, we look upon as the effect of that tender Regard Your Majeſty has always ſhewn to Your People; and we doubt not but that agreeable Harmony, as now appears between Your Majeſty and Your Parliament, and the labour'd Endeavours of Your preſent and faithful Miniſtry, will ſoon bring this great and good Work to a happy concluſion.

As we are intirely ſatisfy'd the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover is neareſt Your Majeſty's Heart, as alſo to obtain ſafe and honourable Terms of Peace for all Your Allies; ſo we cannot but judge all Inſinuations and Jealouſies raiſed to the contrary, muſt proceed from ſuch as not only delight in War, but are carrying on Deſigns they durſt not own.

May Your Majeſty long live and Reign over a dutiful and obedient People; and that after this Life is ended, may Your Majeſty, for Your unparallel'd Piety and Goodneſs, enjoy an immortal Crown of Glory in Heaven.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Callington, was ſent up by Henry Manaton, Eſq; One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Lanſdowne, Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Free-Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Callington in the County of Cornwall.

PErmit us (Dread Sovereign) on this firſt Notice, to Congratulate Your Majeſty on Your having Dunkirk put into Your Hands, as an Earneſt of an approaching Peace, which we cannot now doubt but your Majeſty will ſoon compleat for the good of all your Subjects, (notwithſtanding all Endeavours to the contrary) by vertue of your moſt undoubted Prerogative.

Your Majeſty beſt knows what Terms will be moſt honourable and advantageous to your Majeſty and your Subjects; and your great Condeſcenſion in communicating to your People thoſe that your Majeſty hath in View, commands our utmoſt Gratitude; and what Steps your Majeſty ſhall think fit further to make, towards the obtaining a Peace for us, cannot fail of our moſt cheerful Concurrence, being entirely convinced, by all the glorious Acts of your Majeſty's Reign, of your great Care and Tenderneſs for the Welfare and Proſperity of all your Subjects.

That the Almighty may Crown all your Majeſty's Undertakings with Succeſs; and that this great Work which your Majeſty hath ſo far advanced, may be ſoon perfected; and that your Majeſty may long enjoy the Bleſſings of a peaceful Reign; and with the Hearts of all your Subjects here, and everlaſting Peace hereafter, are the moſt ſincere Prayers of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Fowey, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Henry Vincent, jun. Eſq; One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Lanſdowne.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowey, in the County of Cornwall.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE waving the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, for the ſatisfaction of your People, is an Inſtance of ſuch great Goodneſs as muſt neceſſarily require the moſt dutiful Acknowledgments from all your Loyal Subjects.

We, in particular, approach your Sacred Perſon with the utmoſt Gratitude, for communicating the Terms of a Peace, ſo honourable and advantageous to Great Britain, ſo ſecure and beneficial to all Europe.

And we do with the greateſt Pleaſure, obſerve your Majeſty's tender Care for us in (that other happy Effect of your Wiſdom) the Choice of a Miniſtry no leſs vigilant in deteſting the Nations Enemies, than indefatigably in advancing its Intereſt and Glory, and who have not been diſcouraged from a ſteddy purſuit of the Publick Welfare, either by the Oppoſition or Menaces of thoſe, who by protracting ſo bloody and expenſive War, were equally concerned to conceal their ſecret Fraud and Treachery, and with the greater Security to carry on the Views of their Ambition and Avarice.

May your Majeſty ſtill proceed to defeat the pernicious Attempts of this Faction at Home, and the Enemies they have created us Abroad, by glorioufly compleating that Peace you have ſo happily begun: May you diſſipate thoſe pretended Jealouſies, which nothing but an inveterate Diſaffection to your Perſon and Government could inſpire: And may your Life be continued to late Poſterity, as the moſt invaluable Bleſſing this Church and Kingdom can enjoy.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Loſtwithiel, was preſent to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne, Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, in the abſenſe of the Hon. Major General Hill, and Hugh Forteſcue Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Magiſtrates, and Principal Inhabitants of the Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Loſtwithiel, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE humbly beg leave to imitate the Example of the moſt Dutiful and beſt affected of our fellow Subjects, in Congratulating Your Majeſty upon the good Succeſs of Your Arms, and Counſels; whereby a way is opened to the greateſt of all Bleſſings, a Safe and Honourable Peace. The Terms of which, Your Majeſty has Graciouſly condeſcended to Communicate to Your Parliament.

Of this Happineſs your Subjects are already ſenſible, and we hope the reſt of Europe will be ſo too.

The gaining the Poſſeſſion of Dunkirk without Bloodſhed, is an Inſtance of your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom, and great Tenderneſs of your People; and we of this Town think it a particular Honour to have for one of our Repreſentatives in Parliament, the Perſon with whom your Majeſty has entruſted the Government of that Important place.

May your Majeſty go on as you have done thus far, to ſurmount all Difficulties, to prevail over all open and ſecret Enemies, to perpetuate to us and our Poſterity, the enjoyment of all our Religious and Civil Rights, and to enjoy your Self as the reſult of all this, a very Long and Happy Reign over us.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Grampound, in the County of Cornwall, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable Thomas Coke, Eſq; Her Majeſty's Vice Chamberlain, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by the Right Honourable the Lord Lanſdowne, Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freemen and other Loyal Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's Corporation of Grampound, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

AS all Your Faithful Subjects chearfully acknowledge, that the making Peace is the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, ſo the continuing a bloody and expenſive War, the preferring private Gain before publick Good, endeavouring to Vilify the ableſt, faithfulleſt, and wiſeſt Miniſtry, that any of our Monarchs were ever bleſt with, is claim'd as the indiſputable Property of the Factious and Malicious.

But notwithſtanding their Seditious Deſigns and artful Contrivances both at Home and Abroad, it now manifeſtly appears by the Surrender of Dunkirk (which we humbly beg leave to Congratulate) that Your Royal Endeavours are no longer in any Danger of being diſappointed, in bringing a Peace ſo Advantageous for Your own People, and ſo reaſon-reasonable for Your Allies, to a happy and speedy Concluſion.

And that this is the ardent Deſire of all good Britains, is evident from the ſolemn Aſſurances of Your faithful Senate, the humble Thanks and Addreſſes of Your Metropolis, and of all other loyal Parts of Your Kingdom.

And we, as true Subjects, readily concur with Your Majeſty, and entirely confide in Your wiſe Negotiations.

As Chriſtians, we paſſionately long to ſee a ſtop put to the Effuſion of Humane Blood.

And, as Genuine Sons of the Eſtabliſhed Church, we Devoutly pray, that God would prolong Your invaluable Life to govern Your People (as Your Study and Deſire is) in Wealth, Peace and Godlineſs.

The following Addreſs from the whole Royal Boroughs of North Britain, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Patrick Johnſtone, Member of Parliament for Edinburg, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Mar.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Repreſentatives of the whole Royal Boroughs of North Britain, met in their Annual Convention.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty!

THE comfortable and rejoicing Proſpect of a ſafe and honourable Peace, by the Bleſſing of God upon Your Majeſty's Endeavours (whoſe Royal Prerogative it is to make Peace and War) and the Proſperity of Your Arms, with Your Gracious and Royal Condeſcendance of communicating to Your Subjects the Terms thereof, cannot but be moſt acceptable to all good Men, and in particular to Your Royal Boroughs.

The Glorious Deſigns which Your Majeſty has upon all Occaſions manifeſted to ſecure our Religion, Liberties, the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, to provide for the Safety of Your Allies, and to procure Eaſe and Relief to Your Majeſty's Dominions of their heavy Burdens with the Enlargement and Extenſion of their Trade and Commerce, do lay the ſtrongeſt Obligations upon us, to the utmoſt Degrees of Loyalty and Obedience, which we firmly reſolve to expreſs by all the Acts of Duty and Gratitude.

That Your Majeſty may happily finiſh that great and good Work, to the general Peace and Satisfaction of all Your Majeſty's good Subjects and Allies; and that You may long live to reap the Fruits and Effects thereof, and hold the Ballance of Europe in Your Royal Hands: And after a long, glorious and happy Reign, You may receive an eternal Crown of Glory, are and ſhall ever be the moſt fervent Prayers of, May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal, moſt Faithful, and Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Burgh of Elgine, was preſented to Her Majeſty by . . . . . Reid, of Barr, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the County of Murray, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates of Your Loyal Burgh of Elgine, in the County of Murray, for themſelves, and in Name and Behalf of the Town-Council, and other Inhabitants there.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WHen we reflect upon the great Happineſs we have hitherto enjoyed, during the Courſe of Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, we cannot but, in return to ſo much Goodneſs, humbly offer to Your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and dutiful Acknowledgments.

But when we conſider Your Majeſty, who has raiſed the Glory of the Britiſh Arms far beyond any thing Your Royal Progenitors can boaſt of, uſing Your Endeavours to put an End to the Burthens Your Subjects endure, by a Glorious Peace, our Hearts are filled with Thoughts of Gratitude and Joy, and we moſt chearfully pay that Tribute of Thanks which is due to the beſt of QUEENS, from a Dutiful and Loyal People.

We receive with the greateſt Pleaſure thoſe Favours Your Majeſty and Your Parliament have been pleaſed to beſtow on the Afflicted Sons of the Epiſcopal Church in theſe Parts: We are proud of this Opportunity to profeſs our ſelves Members of it, and are in hopes that, through Your Majeſty's Care and the wiſe Conduct of Your Miniſtry, we ſhall no longer be expoſed to Perſecutions for the Sake of thoſe Principles, by which we are indiſpenſibly bound to defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, Your Majeſty's Hereditary Title to ſway the Scepter over theſe Nations; and that in Oppoſition either to Your Enemies Abroad, or the malicious Deſigns of an inveterate Faction at Home.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Camelford in the County of Cornwall, was ſent up by Paul Orchard, Eſq; and preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Bouchier Wrey, Bar. One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne, Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and Freemen of Your ancient and Loyal Corporation of Camelford, beg leave to proſtrate our ſelves before Your Royal Perſon, and in the moſt humble manner to acknowledge Your extraordinary Goodneſs and Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which a Peace may be made.

We cannot entertain too great an Abhorrence of the Meaſures of ſome among us, who, with ſuch Boldneſs, endeavour to obſtruct Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Endeavours for the obtaining ſo good a Work; wherein the Intereſts of the Allies, the Happineſs of Your People, and the Ballance of Power may be ſo Eſtabliſhed, as that the lateſt Poſterity may reap the Benefit thereof, and call You Bleſſed.

We cannot expreſs our Gratitude for the Regard You have always ſhewn for the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſh'd in the Houſe of Hanover; and that it is neareſt Your Heart to have it acknowledged in the ſtrongeſt Terms.

And ſince the Prerogative of making Peace or War lies in the Crown alone, may the God of Peace ſo direct You in all Your Negotiations, either ſo to Proſecute the one, or to Procure the other, as in Your great Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet? and may You long continue to Reign over a Loyal and Obedient People, that (after having ſo many Years born ſuch heavy and unequal Burdens) are ſtill, and will always be moſt forward to Support the beſt of Queens, againſt all Her Enemies, at Home, and Abroad.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very Graciouſly.

Hamburg, July 26. N. S. The Daniſh Army is not yet entered into the Dutchy of Bremen, but all Diligence is uſed in the neceſſary Preparations for their paſſing the Elbe, as ſoon as the Saxon Artillery arrives. There being reaſon to ſuſpect that the Regiment of Arnold is Infected with a contagious Diſtemper, that Body is encamped ſeparately from the reſt of the Army. His Daniſh Majeſty being informed informed that the ſame Diſeaſe rages in Gluckſtadt, Guards are placed in the Roads, to prevent any Communication between his Army and that City. Theſe Orders were very neceſſary, for we have Advice from Harbourg, a Town upon the Elbe, that a Woman who lived near that Place, having brought ſome Merchandize from Gluckſtadt, died two Days after her Return; and the reſt of her Family, conſiſting of ſeven Perſons, underwent the ſame Fate in a few Days after; upon which it was thought proper to burn the Houſe, and all the Goods that were in it. They write from Lublin, that the King of Sweden was departed from Bender, with a conſiderable Body of Turks and Tartars, who were appointed to guard him to his own Dominions.

Hanover, July 29. N. S. On Wedneſday laſt the Elector ordered his Guards to be reviewed, and was preſent himſelf while they performed their Exerciſe. General Wedel, who was ſent hither by the King of Denmark, with ſome Propoſals relating to the Paſſage of the Troops of that Nation thro' the Territories of his Electoral Highneſs, in order to invade the Dutchy of Bremen on that ſide, is gone away this Morning without having ſucceeded in his Negotiation. On the Twenty ſeventh his Electoral Highneſs ordered three Companies of Foot to march towards the Frontiers, in order to join the Forces already there, and oppoſe the Danes, in caſe they ſhould attempt to paſs thro' his Country without Leave.

From the Camp at Drongen, Auguſt 4. N. S. The 27th of laſt Month the Duke of Ormond ordered two Battalions of Foot to march into Gand, and appointed Major General Sabine Commandant of the Place. The next day the Officers Commanding two Battalions of the States General, which have been for ſome time in Garriſon at Gand, deſired leave to march out to Bruſſels. This was readily granted, and the ſaid Battalions went accordingly next Morning, and took with them all the Meal, and other Stores, which the States had in that Town. The ſame Evening Count D'Urſel came hither from Bruſſels, being deputed by the Council of State, of which he is a Member, to recommend to the Duke the preſervation of the Country, while her Majeſty's Troops continue in theſe Parts. His Grace has accordingly conſented to the Methods propoſed by the States of Flanders, for furniſhing the Army with Forage, upon the ſame foot as when the Prince of Vaudemont Commanded here laſt War, in the abſence of King William. We hear from Marchiennes, that after a vigorous Reſiſtance, the Garriſon had been oblig'd to Capitulate, and Surrender'd on the 30th, upon the ſame Conditions that were granted to the Garriſon of Queſnoy. Brigadier Sutton is ſent with four Battalions from the Army to Bruges; and Brigadier Durell is likewiſe Detach'd with another Party towards Dunkirk, taking with him twenty pieces of Cannon, four Hawitzers, with a proportionable quantity of Ammunition. We have receiv'd an Account, that Douay was Inveſted by the French on the 1ſt Inſtant.

London, July 30. On Saturday laſt his Grace Thomas Duke of Leeds died in the Eighty firſt Year of his Age: He was raiſed to the Nobility by King Charles the Second, who firſt created him Viſcount Latimer, and then Earl of Danby. In the ſame Reign he was Conſtituted Lord High Treaſurer of England, and Inſtalled Knight of the Garter. Soon after the Revolution he was made, by King William and Queen Mary, Lord Preſident of the Council, and Marquis of Carmarthen; and in the Year 1694 their Majeſties were pleaſed to Create him Duke of Leeds. He Married the Lady Bridget, Daughter of Mountague Bertie, Earl of Lindſey, by whom he hath had a numerous Iſſue; and is ſucceeded in Honour and Eſtate by his Son Peregrine, now Duke of Leeds.

On Sunday laſt, the Right Honourabe the Lady Grandville died at Chelſea. She was the Daughter of Sir Joſiah Child, and Mother to his Grace the preſent Duke of Beaufort, by her firſt Husband, Charles Lord Marquis of Worceſter; after whoſe deceaſe ſhe Married John late Lord Grandville.
